Mr. William J. Casey
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

[redacted]
 [redacted] after having served on my personal Senate staff as a Congressional Fellow since December, 1984, some thirteen months. (Recall that last summer, at my request, you graciously agreed to extend his time here by some four months past his original return date of August).

STAT
STAT

This is to commend [redacted] to you for his outstanding performance throughout his time here as a member of my Foreign Policy and Defense Team. [redacted] concentrated on Middle East and Southwest Asia matters, but also was heavily involved in the Cambodian refugee problem, in which I have a concerted interest. Additionally, he was a key participant in our assessment of arms control issues, in particular those associated with the Strategic Defense Initiative.

STAT

Not only did [redacted] repeatedly demonstrate keen perception and impressive analytic abilities in all issues he worked on, he also was proficient in expressing those assessments in a very coherent and convincing manner. I note that [redacted] accomplished this impressive performance while becoming one of the best liked members of my staff.

STAT

Obviously the Agency also felt that [redacted] record warranted recognition since during his time here he was promoted to GS-15 and was informed that he would become a Branch Chief immediately upon his return. I certainly feel that these were astute moves on the Agency's part.

STAT

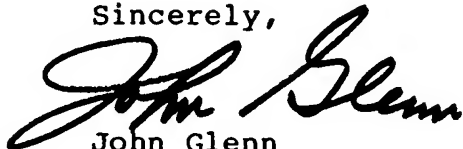

Many thanks, Bill, not only for allowing this fine professional to serve on my staff but also for allowing him to stay through the end of the year. There's no question that he represented your agency in an absolutely first rate fashion.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

John Glenn

Many thanks, Bill. [redacted] did an excellent job and I appreciate very much your willingness to let him remain in my office beyond the usual assignment time.
